

News Briefs: TPP

- Milk, Cars, Sugar Biologics Data Hold Up TPP Deal, but Australia will Likely Still Sign
- (see also here)
- Abe's Waning Popularity Could Hamper Ability to Conclude TPP: Expert
- Amari says TPP may be halted if no deal is reached before Canada election in October
- Canadian, Mexican Auto Parts Makers vs. TPP Rule of Origin
- Asian countries shift focus to regional trade after TPP delay
- Canadians support dairy industry protection, willing to pay more for hormone-free milk.
- AFL-CIO demands enforceable currency measures in TPP in wake of Vietnam's currency drop.
- Obama, Japan's Abe discussed quickly concluding trade deal - White House

News Briefs: TTIP

- TTIP deal: Business lobbyists dominate talks at expense of trade unions and NGOs
- TTIP controversy: The European Commission and Big Tobacco accused of cover-up after heavily redacted documents released
- Wikileaks Issues Whopping €100,000 Bounty For Leaked TTIP, TPP Documents
- 30 Belgian Municipalities vs. TTIP
- Dutch MPs criticise US trade treaty secrecy, want TTIP openness

Other News Briefs

- Newly Released Emails Reveal Cozy Relationship Between U.S. Trade Officials and Industry Reps Over Secret TISA Deal

- WTO Judge In Meat Labeling Case Had Clear Conflict Of Interest

EPI: The Trade Deficit Is Responsible For Manufacturing Job Loss

-