

Save New York Jobs!

34,300 jobs have been lost or displaced in New York – and over 680,000 in the United States – due to the rise in the trade deficit with Mexico alone since the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) was ratified in 1994.

Instead of focusing on job creation, Congress and President Obama now intend to pass three more NAFTA-style trade agreements -- this time with South Korea, Colombia, and Panama. These trade agreements will result in over 200,000 jobs leaving the United States!
